ANTI MONEY LAUNDERING POLICY

Reviewed on 1st December, 2020

BACKGROUND:

The Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 was notified on July 1, 2005. Subsequent to this, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) has on 18th January 2006 (Circular Ref. No. ISD/CIR/RR/AML/1/06) required market intermediaries to adopt a policy framework with respect to Anti Money Laundering measures to be followed by the intermediaries. SEBI vide a Master Circular Ref. No. ISD/AML/CIR-1/2008 dated 19th December 2008 directed all registered intermediaries to ensure compliance with the requirements of the Anti Money Laundering (AML) Standards/ Combating Financing of Terrorism (CFT) / Obligations of the Security Market Intermediaries under Prevention of Money Laundering Act 2002 and rules framed there-under. ACML is inter alia, a stock broker, a Depository Participant (DP), a registered intermediary with SEBI and needs to adhere to the same.

ACML has formulated a policy to comply with the SEBI circular (A copy of which is enclosed as Annexure I). As per the existing policy, ACML has to report to FIU-IND, all market and Off-market Transactions, inter depository Transactions and Pledge Invocation cases where total value of a single transaction and or series of transaction in single scrip in a month is greater than Rs. 10 lacs. This policy was framed in December 2006. In the present market scenario, it is not practically possible to report every transaction of value Rs.10 lacs or above. Hence it is felt that we will revise our Anti Money Laundering Policy. Since the business of the ACML has increased, it is necessary to review the same.

Every transaction in the capital market has two parts i.e. Securities and Funds. ACML deals with the clients only through sub-brokers/Authorised Persons and Depository Participant (DP) franchises. Therefore, it is difficult for ACML to know about the actual Sources of funds/securities provided to ACML. Monitoring the exact income and net-worth of clients and comparing their transaction value with their income and net-worth are also difficult. Therefore a policy of reporting suspicious Transactions is required to be framed and implemented.

Objectives:

- To ensure that ACML meets legal and regulatory obligations, and that its staff is trained properly to adhere and comply with prevalent laid down requirements;
- To establish the process of internal control over clients' trading and Demat accounts and activities falling under the category of suspicious nature by identifying, monitoring and reporting to law enforcement authorities;
- To update all subsequent notifications issued by various regulatory authority/exchanges having relevance to the business of intermediary carried on by ACML.
- To ensure that the policy/procedures framed are implemented / applied effectively.

Definition of Money Laundering:

Section 3 of PMLA has defined the "offence of money laundering" as under:

"Whosoever directly or indirectly attempts to indulge or knowingly assists or knowingly is a party or is actually involved in any process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime and projecting it as untainted property shall be guilty of offence of money laundering".

Obligations under Prevention of Money Laundering (PML) Act 2002:

- (I) Anti-Money Laundering Policy should be approved in writing by Board / Senior Management and reviewed at frequent intervals.
- (II) Implementation of the Anti-money Laundering Policy-
PMLA places certain obligations on every banking company, financial institution and intermediary, which include implementation of the Anti-Money Laundering Policy
 - (i) To maintain a record of prescribed transactions
 - (ii) To furnish information of prescribed transactions to the specified authority
 - (iii) To verify and maintain records of the identity of its clients
 - (iv) To preserve records in respect of (i), (ii) and (iii) above for a stipulated period (presently five years) from the date of cessation of transactions with the clients.

Key Elements of the Policy:

The Policy covers the following key areas and defines procedures and measures to be undertaken by the concerned officials.

1. Designation of an officer for reporting of suspicious transactions
2. Customer Due Diligence and freezing of funds, financial assets/services etc.
3. Transaction Monitoring & Record Keeping
4. Maintenance and Perseverance of Records
5. Audit/ testing of Anti-Money Laundering program
6. Reporting to Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU)-India
7. Employees' Hiring and Training
8. Investors' Education

1. CUSTOMER DUE DILIGENCE AND FREEZING OF FUNDS, FINANCIAL ASSETS/SERVICES ETC.

1.1 Customer Due Diligence ("CDD") measures comprise the following:

The concerned official shall obtain sufficient information about the prospective client and follow the Know Your Client (KYC) procedure for in-person verification of client for both the accounts i.e. Demat and Trading. The concerned official shall take special care in case the natural person, who is desirous of opening an account, suggests that someone else will operate the account in his name. The identification process for the ultimate beneficiary or authority controlling the account should be undertaken, as per the prevalent norms as may be applicable.

In case of corporate clients or clients being legal person, the identity and beneficial ownership of the legal person should be ascertained and verified. The authorized person being designated to operate the account should also be identified both for beneficial owner entities or group as well as the authorized person.

1.2 Client Identification / Acceptance procedure:

The concerned officials i.e. front office as well as back office executives shall ensure that:

- (1) No account is opened in fictitious or benami name or in anonymous manner.
- (2) The senior official shall classify the client into High Risk, Medium Risk and Low Risk category considering the client's location, address, nature of business activity, trading turnover and the manner of making payments.
If a client's profile warrants likelihood of being of high-risk category, immediate attention of the Principal Officer shall be drawn.
- (3) The documents defined and processes prescribed by SEBI/Exchanges, RBI, NSDL/CDSL and the existing management policies are strictly adhered to.
- (4) In case a client is authorizing someone else for operating his account, the same shall be duly recorded with proper process for authorized person. In such cases, a certified true copy of properly executed power of attorney on stamp paper of applicable value must be obtained and the signature as well as details of Power of Attorney should be recorded in the System.
- (5) Sufficient care should be taken to verify past history/track record of the client to ensure that no actions were initiated against him by any regulatory authority or enforcement agency, and that the identity of the client does not match with any person having criminal background or is not banned in any other manner.
- (6) Non-resident clients' registration should be done only after obtaining proper introduction/recommendation from a reliable source like Bank etc.
- (7) A new client should be registered after obtaining introduction from sub-broker or Authorised Person.
- (8) The following classes of clients are defined as "Special Category Clients" (SCC) and the registration is done after more detailed scrutiny and after obtaining reference from a reliable source only.
 - i. Non Resident Clients
 - ii. High net worth Clients
 - iii. Trusts, Charitable Organizations, NGO and organizations receiving donations.
 - iv. Companies having close family shareholdings or beneficial ownership
 - v. Politically Exposed Persons (PEP): Politically Exposed Persons are individuals who are or have been entrusted with prominent public functions in a foreign country, as clarified vide SEBI Circular ISD/AML/CIR-1/2009 dated September 01, 2009. This may also include Current or former senior high profile politicians, their family members and connected entities.
 - vi. Companies offering foreign exchange offerings
 - vii. Clients in high risk countries as clarified vide SEBI Circular ISD/AML/CIR-1/2009 dated September 01, 2009
 - viii. Non face to face clients
 - ix. Clients with dubious reputation as per public information available etc.
- (9) Before opening any new account, ACML shall ensure that the name/s of the proposed customer does not appear in the list of individuals and entities which are subject to various sanction measures such as freezing of assets/accounts, denial of financial services etc., as approved by Security Council Committee established pursuant to various United Nations' Security Council Resolutions (UNSCRs) as available on United Nations website at <https://www.un.org/securitycouncil/content/resolutions> and shall continuously scan all existing accounts to ensure that no account is held by or linked to any of the entities or individuals included in the list. In case of full details of accounts bearing resemblance with any of the individuals/entities in the list, it would be immediately be intimated to SEBI and FIU-IND.
- (10) The company shall obtain sufficient information in order to identify persons who beneficially own or control the securities account. Whenever it is apparent that the securities acquired or maintained through an account are beneficially owned by a party other than the client, that party shall be identified using client identification and verification procedures. The beneficial owner is the natural person or persons who ultimately own, control or influence a client and/or persons on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted. It also incorporates those persons who exercise ultimate effective control over a legal person or arrangement.

In order to follow uniform approach towards determination of beneficial ownership for clients other than individuals or trusts, viz., Company, Partnership or unincorporated association/body of individuals or for client which is a trust, the company shall take reasonable measures to verify the identity of such persons as per guidelines on identification of beneficial ownership issued by SEBI vide its circular no. CIR/MIRSD/2/2013 dated January 24, 2013.

(11) Reliance on third party for carrying out Client Due Diligence (CDD)

- i. The company may rely on a third party for the purpose of (a) identification and verification of the identity of a client and (b) determination of whether the client is acting on behalf of a beneficial owner, identification of the beneficial owner and verification of the identity of the beneficial owner. Such third party shall be regulated, supervised or monitored for, and have measures in place for compliance with CDD and record-keeping requirements in line with the obligations under the PML Act.
- ii. Such reliance shall be subject to the conditions that are specified in Rule 9 (2) of the PML Rules and shall be in accordance with the regulations and circulars/ guidelines issued by SEBI from time to time. The company shall be ultimately responsible for CDD and undertaking enhanced due diligence measures, as applicable.

ACML and its sub-broker's /authorized person's knowledge of the client, its business and risk profile, taking into account, where necessary, the client's source of funds.

- 2.5 The company shall ensure expeditious and effective implementation of the procedure laid down in the UAPA Order dated 27th August 2009 regarding prevention of certain unlawful activities of individuals and associations and for matters connected therewith.

- 2.6 Where upon receipt of the updated list of designated individuals / entities either from SEBI or Exchange or depositories, the company shall comply with the provisions of SEBI circular ISD/AML/CIR-2/2009 dated 23rd October 2009 including freezing/unfreezing of financial assets, economic resources or related services and intimate to relevant authorities.

- 2.7 The internal audit or compliance function shall also endeavor to ensure compliance with the policies, procedures, and controls relating to the prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing, including the testing of the system for detecting suspected money laundering transactions, evaluating and checking the adequacy of exception reports generated on large and/or irregular transactions, the quality of reporting of suspicious transactions and the level of awareness of front line staff, of their responsibilities in this regard. Further, the internal audit function shall be independent, adequately resourced and commensurate with the size of business and operations, organization structure, number of clients and other such factors.

2.8 Risk-based Approach

Certain clients may be of a higher or lower risk category depending on circumstances such as the client's background, type of business relationship or transaction etc. and so, ACML shall endeavor to apply each of the clients due diligence measures on a risk sensitive basis. The risk categorization as reviewed by the Board of Directors in its meeting held on 26.08.2016 may be guided as per Annexure I of this policy

ACML shall endeavor to adopt an enhanced client due diligence process for higher risk categories of client and a simplified client due diligence process for lower risk categories of clients. In line with the risk-based approach, the type and amount of identification information and documents that the company shall obtain necessarily depend on the risk category of a particular client. However, low risk approach shall not apply when there are suspicious of ML/FT or when other factors give rise to a belief that the customer does not in fact pose low risk.

While dealing with clients in high risk countries where existence/effectiveness of money laundering control is suspect, The Company shall independently access and consider other publicly available information, apart from being guided by the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) statements that identify countries that do not or insufficiently apply the FATF Recommendations, published by the FATF on its website <https://www.fatf-gafi.org/>

The company shall endeavor to put in place appropriate risk management systems to determine whether their client or potential client or the beneficial owner of such client is a politically exposed person, which may include seeking relevant information from the client, referring to publicly available information or accessing the commercial electronic databases of PEPs and that the enhanced CDD measures shall be applied where the beneficial owner of a client is a PEP, and take reasonable measures to verify the sources of funds as well as the wealth of clients and beneficial owners identified as PEP.

2.9 Risk Assessment

i. The company shall carry out risk assessment to identify, assess and take effective measures to mitigate its money laundering and terrorist financing risk with respect to its clients, countries or geographical areas, nature and volume of transactions, payment methods used by clients, etc. The risk assessment shall also take into account any country specific information that is circulated by the Government of India and SEBI from time to time, as well as, the updated list of individuals and entities who are subjected to sanction measures as required under the various United Nations' Security Council Resolutions which can be accessed at <https://www.un.org/securitycouncil/content/resolutions>

ii. The risk assessment carried out shall consider all the relevant risk factors before determining the level of overall risk and the appropriate level and type of mitigation to be applied. The assessment shall be documented, updated regularly and made available to competent authorities and self regulating bodies, as and when required.

- 2.10 The company shall pay special attention to all complex, unusually large transactions / patterns which appear to have no economic purpose. ACML may specify internal threshold limits for each class of client accounts and pay special attention to transactions which exceeds these limits. The background including all documents/office records / memorandums/clarifications sought pertaining to such transactions and purpose thereof shall also be examined carefully and findings shall be recorded in writing. Further such findings, records and related documents shall be made available to auditors and also to SEBI /stock exchanges/FIU-IND/other relevant Authorities, during audit, inspection or as and when required. These records are required to be maintained and preserved for five years from the date of transaction between the client and the company.

- 2.11 Further, concerned department of the company shall randomly examine a selection of transactions undertaken by clients to comment on their nature i.e. whether they are in the nature of suspicious transactions or not. Any suspicious transaction shall be immediately notified to the Money Laundering Control Officer or any other designated officer in the form of a detailed report with specific reference to the clients, transactions and the nature /reason of suspicion. However, it would be ensured that there is continuity in dealing with the client as normal until told otherwise and the client would not be told of the report/suspicion. In exceptional circumstances, consent may not be given to continue to operate the account, and transactions may be suspended, in one or more jurisdictions concerned in the transaction, or other action taken. The Principal Officer/Money Laundering Control Officer and other appropriate compliance, risk management and related staff members shall have timely access to client identification data and CDD information, transaction records and other relevant information.

3. MAINTENANCE AND PRESERVANCE OF RECORDS

ACML shall maintain all records and documents prescribed under the applicable laws, rules, regulations, byelaws, circulars and guidelines etc. The officials shall ensure that the records are kept in an easily accessible manner so that it shall be available as and when required by the relevant authorities.

- 3.1 The company shall take appropriate steps to evolve an internal mechanism for proper maintenance and preservation of such records and information in a manner that allows easy and quick retrieval of data as and when requested by the competent authorities. Further, the records mentioned in Rule 3 of PML Rules as amended, have to be maintained and preserved for a period of five years from the date of transactions between the client and the company.
- 3.2 ACML shall formulate and implement the client identification procedure (CIP) containing the requirements as laid down in Rule 9 of the PML Rules and such other additional requirements that it considers appropriate. Further, records evidencing the identity of its clients and beneficial owners as well as account files and business correspondence shall be maintained and preserved for a period of five years after the business relationship between a client and the company has ended or the account has been closed, whichever is later.
- 3.3 All necessary records on transactions, both domestic and international, shall be maintained at least for the minimum period prescribed under the relevant Act and Rules (PMLA and rules framed thereunder as well SEBI Act) and other legislations, Regulations or exchange bye-laws or circulars.
Further, Records on client identification (e.g. copies or records of official identification documents like passports, identity cards, driving licenses or similar documents), account files and business correspondence shall also be kept for the same period.
- 3.4 In situations where the records relate to on-going investigations or transactions which have been the subject of a suspicious transaction reporting, they should be retained until it is confirmed that the case has been closed.
- 3.5 The company shall maintain and preserve the record of information related to transactions, whether attempted or executed, which are reported to the Director, FIU-IND, as required under Rules 7 & 8 of the PML Rules, for a period of five years from the date of the transaction between the client and the company.
- 3.6 The identification documents and other details should be periodically updated either on quarterly or annually, including all documents, data or information of all clients and beneficial owners collected under the customer due diligence process, and that customer due diligence process shall be revisited when there are suspicions of money laundering or financing of terrorism (ML/FT).
- 3.7 Changes required in client bank details and address details pursuant to requests received in properly filled modification form with sufficient proofs should be incorporated in records/database and the same to be retained with client identification documents.

4. REPORTING TO FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE UNIT (FIU)-INDIA

ACML shall report information relating to suspicious transactions to the Director, Financial Intelligence Unit-India (FIU-IND) at the following address; or to the address which may prescribe hereafter:

Director, FIU-IND,
