

ACML Capital Markets Limited

How to transfer fund to client's account of ACML?

- ACML is having virtual account with HDFC Bank for direct client pay-in or margin purpose.
- It is therefore advised to add beneficiary account in the following manner with client's online bank registered with ACML.
 - Account Name : ACML Capital Markets Limited Client AC
 - Account Code : ACMLTD{Client's trading account ID}
 - For example:
 1. If client's trading account ID is 001A001 then Account Code should be ACMLTD001A001
 2. If client's trading account ID is 100Z1 then Account Code should be ACMLTD100Z1
 - IFSC Code : HDFC0000006
- After adding beneficiary account of ACML, client can transfer fund from his registered bank account to the client account of ACML. This fund will be reflected in back office and will be considered for the margin purpose.
- Note that if client transfers the fund from any other bank account which is not registered with ACML then fund will be reverted back and will not be considered for the margin purpose.
